

Media Contact: Jaclyn Cangro Keegan | Baker Public Relations O: 518.426.4099 | M: 914.282.2083 jaclyn@bakerpublicrelations.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 11, 2024

New Hope Community to be Featured in Nationally Televised Segment of Viewpoint

The upcoming episode focuses on the not-for-profit's mission to empower people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Loch Sheldrake, N.Y.— New Hope Community, a leading provider in the human services field, will be recognized for its work on the next episode of Viewpoint. A nationally televised series hosted by actor Dennis Quaid, Viewpoint highlights influential organizations and individuals across the nation and delves into diverse informational and educational topics.

The upcoming episode, titled Improving Communities through Care and Compassion, will begin airing in March. This segment shines a spotlight on New Hope Community's person-centered approach to empowering people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) and will be broadcast on public television stations in all 50 states for a full year – reaching an estimated 60 million households through the program's run.

Several New Hope Community programs and initiatives will be showcased, including:

- Hope Farm, a three-acre plot where residents assist with the cultivation of 12,000 pounds of fresh produce from more than 55 different crops, each year
- Stables at McCoy Meadow horse barn, New Hope Community's on-site hub for equine therapy
- Andrew's Garden, a 1.5-acre sensory exploration garden, curated to provide tranquility and serenity to the people served by New Hope Community, its employees and extended New Hope family
- Annual Community Outreach Dinner, a holiday initiative that provides hundreds of free hot meals to families in need

"We are honored to have this opportunity to share our story, our mission, and our impact on a national stage," said Chief Executive Officer Debra McGinness. "The finished piece features several members of our community demonstrating their talents, independence, and growth. We believe New Hope Community exemplifies mission-driven excellence and hope this piece will inspire people across our country to celebrate and connect with the many amazing people with I/DD that infuse a beautiful element into our lives, each day."

Interviews feature Chief Executive Officer McGinness; Chief Operating Officer Karen Russell; Assistant House Manager Arion Gjeka; Resident and Hope Farm Assistant Tara; Sullivan BOCES District Superintendent and Chief Executive Officer Robert Dufour Ed.D.; Resident and Board Member Walter Madden*; and Madden's sister Susie Busing-Madden. Each interview showcases how New Hope Community is building neighbor-to-neighbor relationships and collaborative partnerships that recognize the unique and special value of all of us while fostering choice and independence.

*In loving memory of Walter Madden, 1958 - 2024

Viewpoint was launched 18 years ago with a mission to inspire its audience through thoughtful educational programming. Previous episodes have featured organizations such as IBM Watson, Nestle, and the National Civil Rights Museum.

New Hope Community will host a private video premiere on campus for its residents. The piece will begin airing nationwide on March 11.

You can watch a preview of the program here.

To learn more about New Hope Community, visit NewHopeCommunity.org.

About New Hope Community:

Established in 1975, New Hope Community is a not-for-profit providing supports for individuals with intellectual and other developmental disabilities. Recognized today as a leading provider in the human services field, the organization maintains a person-centered approach and actively advocates for individual choice in a person's efforts to live, work and participate fully in his or her community. Its breadth of services includes clinical and nursing care, residential services, day programming, community habilitation, self-direction, support brokers, service navigators, education, recreation and leisure activities, a robust supported employment program, summer programs for youths, and much more.

In 2020, New Hope Community merged with Select Human Services, Inc. (SHS) of Pleasantville, NY, a not-for-profit voluntary agency providing services in Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland Counties. The combined organization provides services to more than 700 people and employs more than 1,000 staff.

###